

Protecting Your Firm from Claims of Sexual Harassment

July 21, 2021 | 01 : 00 PM EST

A successful claim of sexual or gender discrimination or harassment can expose a firm to significant costs, damages and penalties. At the minimum, there is likely to be a substantial reputational loss. This webinar will look at the potential implications of adverse claims as well as steps and recommendations to provide protection and defenses.

Claims of sexual and gender discrimination and harassment can result in significant fines, costs, and other damages to a firm. It is increasingly important for firms to take proactive action to address and prevent such events and incidents.
